Sweet and Henry G. Williamson, Jr. to hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Shareholders is held and their successors are elected. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors held five meetings during the fiscal year ending November 30, 2005. The Board has established a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee. The Compensation Committee met two times, the Audit Committee met eleven times and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met four times in fiscal 2005. Each incumbent director attended at least 75% of the total fiscal 2005 Board meetings and committee meetings held during the period that he was a member of the Board or such committees. Each of the following directors and director nominees is independent as defined by applicable NASDAQ listing standards: W. Christopher Beeler, Jr., Robert M. "Mac" Cooper, Jr., John L. Gregory, III, Mark F. Schreiber, David G. Sweet, L. Dudley Walker and Henry G. Williamson, Jr. It is the Company's policy that each of the directors is expected to attend the Company's annual shareholder meetings. Eight of the Company's nine directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting.

Compensation of Directors

For 2005, non-employee directors received an annual retainer of $18,000, plus $7,500 for serving on the Audit Committee and $3,000 for serving on each of the Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees. The Chair of the Audit Committee received an additional $4,500, and the Chairs of the Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees each received an additional $3,000. Employee directors receive no additional compensation for Board or committee meetings attended. During fiscal 2005 Directors were paid no other compensation by the Company for the performance of their services as directors. Directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with attending board and committee meetings or performing their duties as directors.

Compensation for the current directors' services as directors of the Company during fiscal 2005 (excluding reimbursement for expenses) is set forth in the table below:

Director	Fiscal 2005 Compensation
W. Christopher Beeler, Jr.	$ 33,000
Robert M. "Mac" Cooper, Jr.	6,000
John L. Gregory, III	27,000
Mark F. Schreiber	28,500
L. Dudley Walker	24,000
Henry G. Williamson, Jr.	28,500

For 2006, non-employee directors will receive the following cash compensation, which did not change from 2005:

- $18,000 annual retainer for service on the Board; plus
- $7,500 for serving on the Audit Committee and $3,000 for serving on each of the Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees;
- an additional $4,500 for the Chair of the Audit Committee; and
- an additional $3,000 for the Chairs of the Compensation and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees.

Beginning in 2006, non-employee directors will receive an annual grant of restricted stock under the Company's 2005 Stock Incentive Plan. The plan was approved by shareholders at the 2005 Annual Meeting. The number of shares of restricted stock awarded to each non-employee director each year is determined by dividing fifty percent of the total annual fees payable to that director for that year by the fair market value of the Company's Common Stock on the award date, and rounding to the nearest whole share. The restricted stock will become fully vested, and the restrictions applicable to the restricted stock will lapse, on the third anniversary of the grant date, or if earlier, when the director dies or is disabled, the Annual Shareholders Meeting following the director's attainment of age 75, or a change in control of the Company.

On January 16, 2006, each non-employee director of the Company received an award of restricted shares of Company Common Stock as set forth in the table below:

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, which presently consists of Messrs. Beeler (Chairman), Cooper, Gregory and Sweet (effective March 1, 2006):

- identifies individuals qualified to become Board members;
- selects, or recommends that the Board select, nominees to the Board and each committee;
- assists the Board with respect to corporate governance matters applicable to the Company; and
- assists the Board in senior management succession planning.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a current copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at www.hookerfurniture.com. Each member of the Committee is independent as defined by applicable NASDAQ listing standards.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for

- evaluating and making recommendations to the Board regarding the size and composition of the Board;
- developing and recommending criteria for the selection of individuals to be considered as candidates for election to the Board; and
- identifying, investigating and recommending prospective director candidates.

Candidates for director nominees will be assessed in the context of the current composition of the Board, the operating requirements of the Company and the long-term interests of shareholders. The Committee has not established a set of specific, minimum qualifications for director candidates, but in conducting its assessment, the Committee will consider such factors as it deems appropriate given the current needs of the Board and the Company. In the case of incumbent directors, the Committee will review each director's overall service to the Company during his or her term in deciding whether to renominate the director.

The Committee will consider a director candidate recommended by a shareholder for the 2007 Annual Meeting if the recommendation is submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Company and is received at the Company's principal executive offices on or before November 6, 2006. The recommendation must include a description of the candidate's qualifications for serving as a director and the following information:

- the name and address of the shareholder making the recommendation;

- a representation that the shareholder will be entitled to vote at the meeting and, if necessary, would appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons recommended;
- information regarding the director candidate that would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed under the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, if the candidate were to be nominated by the Board of Directors;
- information concerning the director candidate's independence as defined by applicable NASDAQ listing standards; and
- the consent of the director candidate to serve as a director of the Company if nominated and elected.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may refuse to consider the recommendation of any person not made in compliance with this procedure.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee presently includes Messrs. Gregory (Chairman), Cooper, Schreiber and Williamson. During fiscal 2005, the Committee consisted of Messrs. Gregory (Chairman), Cooper (effective September 28, 2005), A. Frank Hooker, Jr. (through March 30, 2005), Schreiber, Walker (through January 11, 2006) and Williamson. The Committee reviews and makes determinations with regard to the compensation for the Company's executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, the President and Chief Operating Officer, each of the Executive and Senior Vice Presidents and the President and Chief Executive Officer of Bradington-Young. No member of the Compensation Committee may be a current employee of the Company. Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent as defined by applicable NASDAQ listing standards. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Compensation Committee, a current copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at www.hookerfurniture.com. The Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation begins on page 10.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee, which presently consists of Messrs. Williamson (Chairman), Beeler, Schreiber and Sweet (effective March 1, 2006):

- approves the appointment of an independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements and internal control over financial reporting;
- reviews and approves the scope, purpose and type of audit and non-audit services to be performed by the external auditors; and
- oversees the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the integrated audit of the Company's annual financial statements and internal control over financial reporting.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, a current copy of which is available on the Company's Web site at www.hookerfurniture.com. The Report of the Audit Committee is set forth below. Each member of the Audit Committee is independent as defined by applicable NASDAQ listing standards. The Company's Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Williamson and Beeler is an "audit committee financial expert" for purposes of the SEC's rules.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal control. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2005 with management, including a discussion of the quality and acceptability of accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Committee discussed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, the independent auditors' judgments as to the quality and acceptability of the Company's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures and letter from the independent auditors to the Committee required by Independence Standard Board Standard No. 1. The Committee has also considered whether the provision of non-audit related services by the independent auditors is compatible with maintaining the independent auditors' independence and found it to be acceptable.

The Committee met with the Company's independent auditors, with and without management present, and discussed the overall scope of their audit, the results of their examination, their evaluation of the Company's internal control and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended November 30, 2005 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

The Company provides a supplemental executive retirement plan for Messrs. Toms, Williams, Ryder and Spece, as well as certain other executives of the Company. This plan provides a monthly supplemental retirement benefit equal to 40% of the executive's final average monthly compensation, payable for a 15-year period following the executive's termination of employment. Final average monthly compensation means the average monthly base salary and any bonuses paid to the executive during the five-year period prior to his termination of employment with the Company. An executive becomes vested in 75% of the monthly supplemental benefit if the executive remains continuously employed with the Company until attainment of age 60, and is vested in additional 5% increments for each subsequent year that the executive remains continuously employed with the Company. Executives who remain continuously employed to age 65 become fully vested in their monthly supplemental benefit. However, Mr. Spece will become fully vested if he remains continuously employed until he reaches age 60. In addition, the monthly retirement benefit for each participant in the plan, regardless of age, will become fully vested and the present value of all plan benefits will be paid to participants in a lump sum upon a change in control of the Company (as defined in the plan).

The estimated annual benefit payable upon retirement at normal retirement age (assuming full vesting) to each of the named executive officers who participates in the supplemental executive retirement plan is set forth below:

	Estimated Annual Retirement Benefit*
Paul B. Toms, Jr.	$ 242,771
Douglas C. Williams	189,004
E. Larry Ryder	150,874
Michael P. Spece	140,314

* Calculated based on historical average salary and bonus amounts for the five-year period ending November 30, 2005. Actual benefits would be calculated based on the five-year period prior to termination of employment with the Company. None of the listed named executive officers has reached, or would reach during fiscal 2006, the minimum vesting age for this benefit.

Executive Life Insurance Program

The Company provides an executive life insurance program for Messrs. Toms, Williams, Ryder and Spece, as well as certain other executives of the Company. This life insurance program provides a death benefit of $1.5 million if the executive dies on or before his 60th birthday, and a $1 million death benefit if he dies after his 60th birthday but on or before his 65th birthday. The life insurance benefit automatically terminates when the executive terminates employment with the Company for any reason other than death or when he attains age 65, whichever occurs first. The life insurance policies funding the new life insurance program are owned by the Company.

2005 Stock Incentive Plan

The Hooker Furniture Corporation 2005 Stock Incentive Plan, approved by shareholders in 2005, is intended to help the Company recruit, motivate and retain the caliber of employees and outside directors essential to the Company's success and to further align the interests of those employees and outside directors with the long-term interests of the Company's shareholders. The Compensation Committee determined that the addition of equity-based compensation to the Company's existing compensation program would enable the Company to provide long-term incentives that will complement the short-term incentives inherent in the Company's performance-based annual bonus program, which is described in the Compensation Committee's report beginning on page 10 of this proxy statement.

The plan permits grants of restricted stock, restricted stock units, stock appreciation rights and performance grants. Performance-based awards under the plan would qualify for deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. A maximum of 750,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock are available for issuance under the plan, subject to adjustment for stock dividends or other distributions, stock splits, mergers, consolidations, combinations, share repurchases or exchange or other similar corporate transactions or events. No more than 75,000 shares of Common Stock may be allocated to incentive awards that are granted during any single taxable year to any individual employee participant.

All present and future key management employees of the Company and its subsidiaries are eligible to receive incentive awards under the plan if the Compensation Committee determines that they have contributed, or can be expected to contribute, significantly to the Company or any of its subsidiaries. The Compensation Committee has the power and complete discretion to select eligible key management employees to receive incentive awards and to determine the type of award and its terms and conditions. In addition, each outside director will be eligible to receive restricted stock in accordance with the terms of the award program for outside directors, which is described under "Compensation of Directors" beginning on page 3. Outside directors are not eligible to receive any other type of incentive award under the plan.

Other than restricted stock grants made to the Company's non-employee directors (4,851 restricted shares of Common Stock in the aggregate), no incentive awards have been approved under the plan.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

During the Company's fiscal year ended November 30, 2005, the Compensation Committee included Messrs. Gregory (Chairman), Cooper (effective September 28, 2005), A. Frank Hooker, Jr. (through March 30, 2005), Schreiber, Walker (through January 11, 2006) and Williamson. A. Frank Hooker, Jr. was an officer of the Company until his retirement in May 1999.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") is composed exclusively of non-employee, independent directors. The Board of Directors delegated to the Committee the responsibility to develop and implement general principles for compensating the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the other members of the Company's executive leadership team. The Committee also is responsible for administering certain Company compensation plans and for exercising general oversight over the Company's executive compensation practices. The Committee meets at scheduled times throughout the year.

General Compensation Philosophy

The Committee has adopted a charter that provides guidelines for carrying out the Committee's responsibilities. The Committee periodically reviews the charter to determine whether modifications are necessary to reflect changes in the Company's business or the market environment in which it operates, and to address other factors that may affect executive compensation setting.

The Committee believes that the primary goal of the Company's compensation program should be to attract and retain highly qualified executives who will contribute significantly to the success of the Company. The Committee further believes that the compensation program should motivate executives to achieve the financial and other goals inherent in the Company's business strategy, and should link the elements of compensation to both individual performance and to the Company's financial performance.

Prior to the beginning of the 2005 fiscal year, the Committee engaged a compensation consulting firm to review the Company's current compensation and benefits programs. The compensation consultant was asked to help the Committee determine whether the programs further the Committee's overall compensation philosophy in as effective a manner as possible. The consulting firm reviewed the total amount of compensation provided to each member of the executive leadership team, and also reviewed the individual components comprising each member's total compensation. The consulting firm concluded that the Company's annual base salary and annual performance bonus program provide total annual compensation generally in line with that of peer companies, but noted that the Company's overall compensation program lacked a long-term incentive element. The companies in the peer group identified by the compensation consultant were not identical to the group of companies used for the Performance Graph at page 13 of this proxy statement. The Committee determined that this was an appropriate peer group to use for purposes of compensation setting because the group generally represents the firms that the Company competes with for executive talent.

After considering the compensation consultant's analysis, the Committee concluded that it would be appropriate to add stock-based incentive compensation to the Company's overall executive compensation program. The Committee decided that stock-based awards could be structured to create long-term incentives that would complement the short-term incentives inherent in the Company's annual performance bonus program and that such awards could help to more closely align the interests of the executive leadership team with those of the Company's shareholders. At the Committee's recommendation, the Board of Directors adopted a stock incentive plan that was approved by the Company's shareholders at the 2005 annual shareholder meeting.

Compensation Decisions for Fiscal 2005

Compensation Setting Process

In setting base salaries and annual bonus opportunities for 2005, the Committee adopted a process similar to that used in prior years. First, the Committee considered the compensation consulting firm's assessment of the compensation levels for each member of the Company's executive leadership team. The assessment collected total compensation data for executives with comparable positions to those of the executive leadership team and developed from that data a series of salary ranges for each executive leadership team member. The assessment indicated that the 2004 salaries were on average slightly below the mid-point salaries for executives with comparable positions at peer companies. The assessment also analyzed the total annual compensation paid to the members of the executive leadership team.

The Committee next considered recommendations of annual compensation levels presented by the executive leadership team. Those recommendations included modest increases in annual base salaries, and a bonus program with opportunities based on the Company's attainment of a specified level of earnings before taxes. The recommended threshold for 2005 was higher than the threshold used for the bonus program for the 2004 fiscal year.

Base Salaries and Annual Bonus Opportunities

After considering the consultant's assessment and the management recommendations, the Committee decided to increase the annual base salaries of the members of the executive leadership team to levels that were more in line with the mid-point salary ranges for comparable positions with the peer companies identified in the compensation consultant's study. The Committee also decided to implement the recommended annual bonus program with the higher threshold target. The Committee concluded that increasing the threshold target under the bonus program would create an additional incentive for the executive leadership team to improve the profitability of the Company.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Committee determined that setting the Chief Executive Officer's annual base salary at $279,000 and providing a bonus opportunity for the 2005 fiscal year under the program described above was appropriate to better align his total annual compensation with that of other chief executive officers of the peer companies identified by the compensation consultant. The Committee also determined that this level of compensation was appropriate to recognize the Chief Executive Officer's performance during 2004. The Committee noted that the Chief Executive Officer had adapted the Company's business strategy to more effectively address increased competition from foreign furniture manufacturers, and this had allowed the Company to continue to perform well in an increasingly difficult market environment.

Other Compensation Programs

The Committee decided that no changes should be made to the other compensation programs for the executive leadership team, such as the Company's supplemental retirement plan or executive life insurance program. In addition, the Committee decided not to make any awards under the long-term incentive plan for 2005 because it wanted to further study and analyze how to best structure an award program that would enhance the base salary and award performance programs. The Committee intends to make awards under the Stock Incentive Plan in future years.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m)

The Committee takes into account the federal income tax limit on Company deduction for compensation of over $1 million that is paid in any taxable year to the Company's Chief Executive Officer or to any of the other four most highly compensated individuals who are executive officers at the end of the year. Current compensation levels for each of the members of the Company's executive leader team are well below the $1 million threshold.

In addition, the types of incentive awards authorized under the stock incentive plan generally would be exempt from the $1 million limitation on deductible compensation. The Committee will consider the potential application of the deduction limit when structuring compensation components in future years.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Voting Procedures

Votes will be tabulated by one or more Inspectors of Elections. A majority of the total votes entitled to be cast on matters to be considered at the Annual Meeting constitutes a quorum. If a share is represented for any purpose at the Annual Meeting, it is deemed to be present for quorum purposes and for all other matters as well. Abstentions and shares held of record by a broker or its nominee ("broker shares") that are voted on any matter are included in determining the number of votes present or represented at the Annual Meeting. However, broker shares that are not voted on any matter at the Annual Meeting will not be included in determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting.

In the election of directors, the eight nominees receiving the greatest number of votes cast in the election of directors will be elected. Votes that are withheld and broker shares that are not voted in the election of directors will not be included in determining the number of votes cast on the election of directors and, therefore, will have no effect on the election of directors. Actions on all other matters to come before the meeting will be approved if the votes cast in favor of the action exceed the votes cast against it. Abstentions and broker shares that are not voted are not considered cast either for or against a matter and, therefore, will have no effect on the outcome of that matter.

Voting of Shares Held in Employee Stock Ownership Plan

Participants in the Company's ESOP will receive a form to use to provide voting instructions to GreatBanc Trust Company, the trustee for the ESOP (the "ESOP Trustee") for the shares of Common Stock held on each participant's behalf by the ESOP Trustee. The share amounts on the form will reflect the shares in the participant's plan account. Voting instructions should be returned, properly executed, in the envelope provided. The ESOP Trustee will vote in accordance with a participant's instructions. If an ESOP participant does not return voting instructions, the ESOP Trustee will vote the shares in its discretion.
