State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On February 14, 2006, Hooker Furniture Corporation (the "Company") issued a press release announcing a revision to its results of operations for its 2005 fourth quarter and the fiscal year ended November 30, 2005. The Company furnished a copy of the press release to the SEC as an exhibit to a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on the same day. As a result of this revision, the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended November 30, 2005 has not yet been completed. The Company expects that the results of operations and financial condition that it will report in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended November 30, 2005 will be the same as reported in its February 14, 2006 press release and Form 8-K, but additional time is required to permit the Company's management, audit committee and independent registered public accounting firm to complete their customary review of the Form 10-K for fiscal 2005. As a result, the Company could not have timely filed the Form 10-K without unreasonable effort or expense. The Form 10-K will be filed no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the originally prescribed due date.

Net income for the Company's fiscal year ended November 30, 2005 was $12.5 million, or $1.06 per share, compared to $18.2 million, or $1.56 per share, for the 2004 fiscal year.

The Company's earnings for the 2005 fiscal year, were affected by a $5.3 million pretax ($3.3 million after tax, or $0.28 per share) restructuring and related asset impairment charge principally related to the October 2005 closing of the Company's Pleasant Garden, N.C. wood furniture manufacturing facility.

As announced by the Company in a press release dated February 14, 2006, the Company's earnings for 2005 also reflect the revision of an overstatement of the Company's advertising program costs and group insurance expense for the 2005 fourth quarter of approximately $658,000, or $0.06 per share. Hooker Furniture's revised net sales for the 2005 fourth quarter were $90.2 million and net income for the 2005 fourth quarter as revised was $4.0 million, or $0.34 per share. A copy of the press release was furnished to the SEC under cover of the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed February 14, 2006.
